Christmas Customs— Their Development

The singing of carols at Xmas time is perhaps the most ancient of customs, in commemoration of the birth of the founder of Christianity. At first the carols were religious hymns, but in the course of time many merry tunes were especially composed to commemorate some joyous festivity, and they also came to be known as carols. In England the strolling carol-singers go about from house to house receiving gifts of money or food for their singing.

In Italy the strolling singers are called the Pifferai or pipers, and each year at Xmas time they come down from their mountain in Abruzzi to sing their sweet melodies in the streets. Each year it seems that Christmas loses more of its characteristic festivities and traditions, but some are so simple and sweet that they will linger on forever. The Xmas tree, whose origin all Christian nations claim, and we travel far back into the past and find curious lore of fir trees, mistletoes and holly.

The Romans celebrated the Saturnalia feast for seven days—a period when everyone rejoiced, no battles were fought, caste was abolished, slaves were the equals of their masters, and "Peace on Earth" prevailed. A special festival for children was arranged and they received gifts of clay dolls. Amid all this joyous revelry came the birth of our Savior January 7, B. C. 746, corresponding to our December 25, and the feast of the Saturnalia was changed to a reverent and joyful celebration.

Another very old custom is that of setting lighted candles in the windows on Xmas Eve to give holiday greetings to passers-by and this, with the burning of the Yule-log, is one of the simple customs so easily commemorated.

Carmel is especially fitted wherein to celebrate a real old-fashioned Christmas, so let us sing our carols, light our candles in the windows, decorate our trees, cut a big Yule-log to burn all the evening and know that then—

"No planets strike,
No fairy takes, nor witch hath power to charm,
So hallowed and so gracious is the Time."

Welcome to Our City

Carmelenos will learn with pleasure that the War Department has designated the Monterey Presidio as one of several reserve officers training camps, to be maintained for six weeks during next summer.

It is expected that the camp will open about June 15, and it will be for cavalry instruction.

The last time there was a training camp at the Presidio, several of the families of the men resided here, not only during the camp, but for weeks before and after; and in two instances real estate was acquired here.

Miss Evelyn Wells of the San Francisco Call was here for a few days this week, and visited Mother Carrington at Pacific Grove. Robert Shaw, also of the Call, was registered at Pine Inn.

CAROL

BY R. L. GRAVES

*FROM the far West of Bethlehem
Came three Grandees of Spain,
For many months both night and day
They had strode on a main
On their high stilts o'er marsh and moor,
O'er mountain and o'er plain.*

*ONE bore a fine Toledo blade
All heretics to slay,
One bore gold ingots from Peru
The debts of God to pay,
And one had threaded to his plume
A star that led the way.*

*IN all the Spains there were not found
Hidalgos like to these.
They never yet had doffed their hats,
Those worshipful Grandees,
Nor ever yet had bowed their heads
Or ever bent their knees.*

*THEY offered gold and sword and star
At that low stable door—
They doffed their hats full reverently
And bowed the Maid before—
But when they saw the little Child
They fell down to adore.*

*HIDALGOS two, fidalgos one,
That was a Portuguese—
Oh when they saw the tiny babe
They went down on their knees,
They lighted from their high high stilts,
They knelt low on the floor—
Oh when they saw God's little Son
They fell down to adore.*

Pine Needles

Mrs. Margaret E. Wallace of Los Angeles, through the Carmel Realty Company, has purchased the Babcock house at Camino Real and 12th avenue. Mrs. Wallace will make her permanent home here.

Harriet L. Bromley and Kate Logan, Y. W. C. A. secretaries, were in Carmel last week in the interest of the national camp grounds at Asilomar.

Professor Solomon Blum of the University of California is occupying the Lynch-Wilson cottage here. This is not the first visit of the Professor in Carmel.

Miss Elizabeth Pettinger of San Francisco will be a guest of the William B. Swain family at the Marton cottage for the holidays.

Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell of Alameda county, and Mrs. Kinsell, have come from their home in Piedmont to spend the Christmas holidays in Carmel. They are occupying the Coleman cottage on Carmelo avenue and Eleventh street, and have as their guest, Miss Helen Kinsell, sister of the Judge.

Lawrence J. Willner of San Jose is here to spend Xmas with his mother, Mrs. J. Willner, and little sister, Miss Gwyneth.

The Roberts-Taylor $30,000 suit is now on trial at Salinas. George F. Beardsley, William T. Kibbler and Frederick Rhodes are members of the jury.

The Sammann family are leaving shortly for San Francisco, where they will remain until March, after which they will go to New York and Europe via the Panama Canal.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rask have gone to San Francisco to spend Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Parker, and family.

Mrs. S. B. Hunkins is in Fresno to enjoy the holiday season with relatives who reside there.

Harry T. Coleman of the San Francisco Call editorial and promotion staff will be here tomorrow to enjoy Christmas dinner with his family.

Give them a year's subscription to the Pine Cone. A fine Xmas gift. Like a weekly letter from home.

Dunder and Blitzen Early Sunday Morning

Could General Neville, the hero of Verdun, who is now in San Francisco, have been here after midnight last Sunday, he would have had a vivid and audible reminder of the big battle.

With the heavy rain and occasional hail, there came loud and continuous thunder and bright and frequent lightning.

Many a timid child, frightened by the battle in the skies, sought refuge and protection by snuggling into some one else's bed, and there surely were some grown-ups who covered their eyes to shut out the lightning flashes.

It was the most severe storm since February, 1913.

The introduction of a Sunshine School at Hotel Del Monte has proven quite a success. It has filled a need in providing instruction for the children on the Monterey Peninsula, and for the visiting guests who spend their time at the hotel. A special feature of the school is the Saturday morning dancing class. Competent instructors school the children and it has proven interesting in providing an attraction for them to continue their studies.

Vacation Camp Grounds

For the first time the grounds at Asilomar are open to guests during the winter. Asilomar has been thought of only as conference grounds, but it is a vacation camp also. One of the smaller houses has been fitted up so that living accommodations may all be under one roof. The management of the grounds is arranging for an At-home New Year's Day, when the public are invited to visit between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock. There will be representatives from the national and field offices who will assist the manager, Miss Amelia C. Johnson, in showing the different buildings. Asilomar is one of the beautiful places on the Peninsula, and ought to be better known by Carmel residents.

Asilomar is owned and managed by the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, being the only conference grounds in the United States owned by this organization. The land was the gift of the Pacific Improvement Company.

Christmas Eve Party Arts and Crafts Hall

The arrangements for the Children's Christmas eve party in Arts and Crafts Hall, are quite completed. The hour is 6:30 p. m., and the Community Club again extends a cordial invitation to every child in Carmel.

Please do not forget to bring a cushion or pillow that can be used on the floor.

It is important that every home in Carmel will have a Christmas light burning Christmas eve.

The Reading Circle will not meet next week, but will resume the first Monday in January, with a miscellaneous program and music.

Children Celebrate at Sunset School

The Christmas celebration of the pupils of Sunset school took place on Friday afternoon last, and a delightful afternoon was spent by the parents and visitors. The program as pub-most marked. Recitations by boys and girls, a cunning dialogue by the first and second grade pupils most entertainingly rendered, songs appropriate to the occasion, and at the close of the last playlet the realistic appearance of Santa Claus, who invited the children and guests into another room to see the wonderful lished in last week's Pine Cone was especially well rendered, and much credit is due the teachers for their training and the pupils for their splendid efforts.

There were two playlets presented and the perfection of enunciation mas tree, brought from the school yard into the school room and decorated by the teachers and children.

Bright colored bags filled with Xmas candies were distributed to all and school ended, to begin again on January 3.

Items of Interest

Frederick R. Beecholt, Carmel's noted student of criminology, published in the San Francisco Examiner of Sunday last a comprehensive study of indeterminate prison sentences. The article is most worthy of the attention of the layman as well as that of the solons of the law.

Frederick Preston Search, musical director of Hotel Del Monte and Pebble Beach Lodge, is to arrive today to assume his new responsibilities bringing with him a splendid array of artists for the orchestras and concerts. His special offering Christmas morning at Del Monte will be a rare concert of Christmas carols by a quartet of singers from San Francisco.

Valley School Closing Exercises

The school closing exercises and community Christmas tree, conducted by Miss May Day, teacher of Carmelo school, was a most enjoyable affair. The exercises were held in the Carmel Valley Hall, which was decorated in an artistic way.

There were ten numbers on the program, all of which were rendered in a very creditable manner. It was especially pleasing to see how well the little folks rendered their part of the program. Following the exercises came the Xmas tree with a Santa Claus package for all. After the Xmas tree was relieved of its go-dies and toys, there were games for both young and old; and last, but not least, were the eats, and you cannot beat the valley people at serving good eats.

Development of Radiolife

Another remarkable property of radium compounds is that they are continuously emitting heat, in fact, sufficient being evolved to keep the temperature of the radium permanently about one degree centigrade above that of surrounding bodies; or, expressed in another way, an amount of heat is evolved which would raise an equal weight of water from the freezing-point to the boiling point every hour.

The action of radium on human tissues was unknown until 1901, when Prof. Becquerel suffered a severe inflammation of the skin, since known to scientists as the "Becquerel burn." It was early learned that although a strong application of radium could kill cancerous growths, a much milder application might greatly stimulate them.

Further investigations into the action of radium on diseased tissues resulted in the establishment in Paris, in 1906, of the "Laboratoire Biologique du Radium," followed by similar centers for study in other countries.

Since the general nature of living animal and vegetable protoplasm is identical, the question of influencing plant growth by the action of radium was thus suggested. Plant physiologists then undertook the investigation of that subject.

Among the many carefully conducted experiments made in France, showing the beneficial effects of low activities were those conducted at the Central Agricultural School de la Sologne, Villeny; the Bertonval Grignon, and the Moudon Agricultural Station at Moudon. The most extensive series of experiments, however, were carried on at Joachimsthal by Dr. Julius Stocklosa, Director of the Chemical-Physical Institute, at Prague, Austria.

About Books

In a long list of "The Best Short Stories of 1920," compiled by Edward J. O'Brien, and published in the Boston Transcript, appears "His Job," by Grace Earlwell Mason, and "Uncharted Reefs," by John Fleming Wilson.

When, in 1843, "A Christmas Carol" was first published, Charles Dickens was only thirty-one years of age and, even then, famous as the creator of Oliver Twist, Pickwick, Bill Sykes and Nicholas Nickleby. In the preface to the "Carol," he wrote: "I have endeavored in this ghostly little book to raise the Ghost of an Idea, which shall not put my readers out of humor with themselves, with each other, with the season, or with me. May it haunt their house pleasantly and no one wish to lay it." For many years now it has more than fulfilled the author's hope.

Interesting Art News

A feature in the Christmas number of the San Francisco News Letter is a full page reproduction of a picture recently painted by M. De Neale Morgan.

The splendid exhibition of the works of local artists at Arts and Crafts Hall will come to a close in about two weeks. You owe it to your artist friends and yourself to go and take a "look see."

The Wildenstein Galleries in New York recently opened an exhibition of paintings of the Arizona desert by Francis McComas. A California artist of distinct merit, who held a remarkable exhibition of landscapes in Boston many years ago, we commend him to New York art lovers.

Shades of Anthony Comstock! Visitors at the St. Petersburg Winter Art School in Florida recently found the nude statues garbed in middle blouses and bloomers. A short time ago the Civic League censured the nude art at the school and now several busts suspended from the ceiling by strings tied around the necks are labeled "lynched by the Civic League."

Exhibition of the work of Mrs. Mary J. Colter, artist, and formerly assistant director of the Chicago School of Applied Art, is on at the Municipal Art Gallery, Oakland. The exhibit opened on Tuesday and will continue until January 9. The collection will include oil paintings, etchings and specimens of batik work. Mrs. Colter has just returned from the Hawaiian islands where much of her work was done.

Early in the new year, the recently finished canvasses of E. Charlton Fortune will be on view in San Francisco. This is certain to gain the attention and interest of many, for Miss Fortune paints big subjects in a big way. A masculine forcefulness announces itself in much of her work. By many she is considered by far the strongest woman artist of this Coast, and the fact that Miss Fortune is soon to leave for her native Scotland allows only a short period in which to view this work, which is the result of her summer and fall months at Carmel and Monterey.

THINGS THE BOYS LONG FOR

Youngsters Prefer Toys or Contrivances to Test Their Muscular Skill or Endurance.

WHAT shall be said of that blundering kindness of home folk that considers giving the boy only presents of such things as he actually needs? It is an outrage upon the spirit of Christmas to present him with new shoes, ties, handkerchiefs—something that he knows he will get anyway—when his sleeping and waking dreams for weeks before have been filled with visions of tops, balls, guns and magic lanterns, says Maud Souder in the Woman's Home Companion. The most beautiful knitted muffler woman's fingers ever constructed cannot compare with a jack-knife with four blades and a cork-screw attachment, when exhibited over the back fence to a neighbor boy on Christmas morning. Very soon after the days of kilts a boy reaches the age when he yearns with his whole soul after any toy or contrivance that will test his muscular skill or endurance. At this age an appropriate present would be a rawhide or rope lariat, such as is used by the Buffalo Bill riders. A pair of hand or arm stilts will be received with equal favor, and in the same category comes a new fishing rod, snow shoes, tennis racket, golf clubs, a good ball, lamp or cyclometer for his wheel, or even a live pet, a new dog, a pair of rabbits or guinea pigs—something that he can pet and train for his own.

Observations

FROM THE

Editorial Sanctum

The publishers of the Pine Cone tender Christmas greetings to its readers together with assurances of appreciation for the liberal support accorded it by the Peninsula communities, whose interests we are constantly serving. To our visiting friends, who have joined us to enjoy the charm of our woods and shores during the holiday season and an old-fashioned Christmas, we extend a cordial welcome.

"Heap on more wood, the wind is chill,
But let it whistle as it will,
We'll keep our Christmas merry still."

Picturized Poison (?)

At Point Lobos powerful spot lights are glowing at night, directors are directing, supernumeraries and mechanics are rushing to and fro, and modishly dressed men and women are promenading near or grouped about roulette wheels and other gambling paraphernalia, busily engaged in reproducing, by the aid of the camera, the glittering scene of ultra fashionable life at Monte Carlo's casino at the height of its so-called season.

Will this picture, when viewed on the screen by the thousands of spectators of all ages and conditions of life who will crowd the theatres in which it will be reproduced, be morally or intellectually beneficial? Will those of tender and impressionable age, who are thrilled by its portrayal, receive the instruction contained in the realistic pictorial of the suicide of a losing player that gaming is a ruinous vice? or will their first glimpse of "high life" prove to be their subsequent undoing?

Psychologists claim to recognize the power of suggestion as a natural law, citing in proof thereof that committed crimes, when freely published, are usually followed by similar ones, perpetrated by others influenced by suggestion.

Carmel housekeepers are relieved from the necessity of studying market reports, as their tables are abundantly supplied with abalone, venison, teal ducks and quail from Carmel's back yard.

The overcrowded condition of the local public school has resolved itself to a question of enlarged quarters and a fourth teacher. Money to enlarge is not available. It may be necessary to hold a bond election in the spring to obtain the necessary funds. Parents are vitally interested in this matter.

WHY NOT BUILD?

To own one's own home should be the wish of everyone who lives in Carmel. If you own a lot here, put a house on it. If you don't own a lot, buy one now while land is cheap. If you don't live in the house yourself, there is no question about renting it. Plans and specifications submitted.

TO TRIM A CHRISTMAS TREE

Pretty Trimmings and Decorations Can Be Made in Almost Any Home at Slight Expense.

As to trimming the Christmas tree, first of all, don't trim your tree with cotton batting and lighted candles, as there is always danger in this combination, and "safety first" should be the slogan in all Christmas festivities.

You can purchase a whole lot of pretty decorations for your tree at the shops, and these come very cheaply, too. But almost any home can furnish the decorations for a really lovely tree without very much expense, and there is no reason why every family where there are children should not have their Christmas tree.

Strings of popcorn and red cranberries looped from the branches make an effective decoration. And strings of yellow field corn gleam beautifully in the Christmas light. Crescents, stars and hearts cut from heavy cardboard and covered with silver and gilt, or even colored paper, and cornucopias of bright colors filled with candy and popcorn are very pretty. Form cotton-battling into balls the size of an orange and cover with orange-colored crepe paper, twist tightly and tie to the tree with a bit of narrow ribbon. These are pretty on the tree and look like oranges.

It is best to place all the larger packages under the tree, tying only the smaller gifts which are tied up in bright-colored paper to the branches. In this way the tree will not look frayed and denuded when the gifts are distributed, and it may be kept a long time for the children to enjoy.

Why Do the majority of Carmel housewives send their soiled clothes to the

Del Monte Laundry

Because they realize that the Del

Monte uses only pure soap,

without harmful chemicals,

in washing.

Novel Christmas Salad Bowl.

By the time that the salad course arrives at the Christmas dinner all that surround the festive board are apt to be warm. It will be refreshing to see the salad come to the table in a block of ice. Smooth the ice square with a hot flat iron and make a cavity in the center with the same utensil. Border with crisp lettuce and sprigs of holly and fill with salad. Place the block on several thicknesses of cloth or a deep platter and put around it a wreath of holly.

The new "engine insurance"

CLEAN oil in a clean engine" is a "policy" that no motorist can pass up if he expects his engine to give efficient service.

After a few weeks of driving, your engine oil becomes dirty with carbon, road dust and fine particles of metal—and diluted by gasoline which works past the pistons.

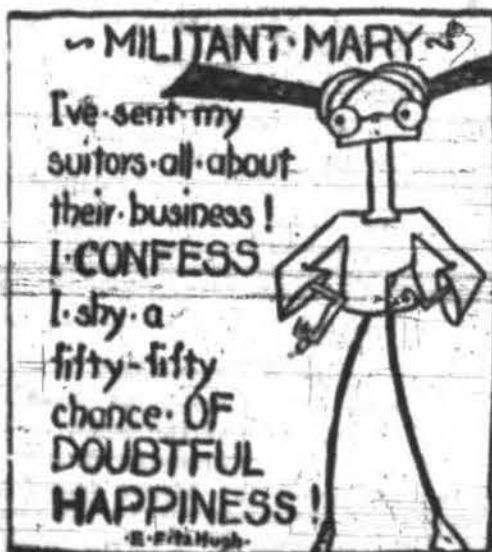

To rid your engine of this dirty, diluted oil and refill the crankcase with clean, fresh oil, we have installed Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service. Our skilled mechanics can perform this needed service for you quickly and at a nominal cost. We use Calol Flushing Oil, which cleanses thoroughly without danger of contaminating the fresh oil. And to assure proper lubrication for your engine we refill the cleaned crankcase with Zerolene of the correct grade.

Bring in your car today. Let our Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service give you better engine performance and longer life for your car.

Items of Interest

Carmel friends of County Clerk Thomas P. Joy were extending their condolences to him on the loss he sustained by the death of his father in Salinas last week.

Theodore S. Solomons and children are spending the holidays in San Francisco. During their absence their house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Miller, Mrs. Miller having come from the city for a vacation to extend over the holidays.

A correction. The Pine Cone stated last week that Editor Francis of the Napa Register had passed away. It was not the editor, but his esteemed wife who died.

Work on the alteration and enlargement of the old MacDougal place, recently acquired by Mrs. Valentine Mott Porter, is progressing rapidly. This residence is located on Dolores street, in the pine woods section.

GOOD TURNS ON CHRISTMAS

Chance for All to Aid the Friendless in Having Happy Yuletide Season.

REAL purveyors of Christmas cheer may often find a market for their precious wares outside the pale of charity, for all homeless people are not necessarily poor, and neither are all childless homes necessarily unhappy. Housekeepers who are short on homes may combine these two lackings and make Christmas day a merry delight for the grown-ups in spite of these unfortunate conditions.

There is always something peculiarly pitiable in the idea of any one "flocking alone" which should appeal to the home-maker without a family, so that this should be the occasion for her to gather in all the bachelor maids and homeless men of her acquaintance and give them a joyful opportunity to "flock together." Even the Scrooges, if she knows any, should be rescued from their lonely bowls of gruel and persuaded to open their shut-up hearts and wear them outside for general inspection, as Dickens says, "For Christmas daws to peck at." Therefore, collect six or eight of these birds of a feather who are destitute of near-by kith and kin and make your Christmas feast a center of good cheer for all the charming solitaires you are able to draw within its radius. Woman's Home Companion.

Items of Interest

The Hopper family has gone to San Francisco, where they will remain until the new year, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Leonard, parents of Mrs. Hopper.

The work of alterations and repairs at Pine Inn, under the able supervision of Contractor Percy W. Parkes, goes merrily on. Old timers will hardly know the old place when the work is completed. Even now the lobby and office present a most pleasing and inviting appearance.

A license was issued in San Francisco last week for the marriage of Miss Inez Fratties, aged 19, of Carmel, and Paul S. Mercurio, aged 21, of Monterey.

Miss Mai Guichard has gone to the home of her parents at Ben Lomond. Miss Stella will go home on Saturday morning.

Robert Crow, brother in law of Miss Helen Parkes and Percy Parkes, is here from Memphis, Tenn., to enjoy Christmas with his two little daughters.

Mrs. Mabel Gray Young will have her son Harry here during the holidays. Otto was to have come also, but will be unable to arrive until after New Year's.

John Kenneth Turner and wife, who have for some time contemplated a trip to New York, are leaving shortly.

Miss Mary E. Mower and her niece, Miss Lucy Abel, are spending the holiday season with relatives in Berkeley.

Harvey E. Russell, the well-known cattleman, with his wife and daughter, has left for Los Angeles. They will be here again in the spring.

The plausible and fast talking stranger who tendered a $20 bill in payment for a 25 cent purchase at an Ocean Avenue store, and after receiving his proper change, attempted to shift part of the change and recover his twenty, departed apparently much chagrined because of his failure.

Christmas-tide Services at All Saint's Church

On the morning of Christmas Day there will be two services: Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, and Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 10:30. The rector will officiate at both services, and the offertory solo at the second service will be sung by Miss Carpenter—an unpublished but beautiful setting of Phillip Brook's much loved carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," composed by the organist of All Saint's Church, Providence, R. I.

On Sunday, the services will be at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. At the latter service the Rev. G. M. Dorwart will officiate and preach the sermon. The offering on Christmas Day will be for the "Nation Wide Campaign" quota of this Mission.

The offering for the relief of the suffering children in Central Europe will be taken on the second Sunday in January. Offerings made on Christmas Day for Christ's little ones in Europe should be placed in an envelope and marked for that purpose.
